1. PRINCIPLES AND PURPOSES OF THE POLICY

1.1. Higher Education Institutions (“HEIs”) are highly consequential institutions in society that are dedicated to the pursuit and dissemination of knowledge. Members of the HEI community have several important rights and privileges, central among which is the right to pursue inquiry and search for knowledge without hinderance from unlawful or otherwise unacceptable constraints. The Higher Education Commission (the “HEC”), which has been mandated by law to prescribe conditions under which HEIs in the country may be opened and operated, takes very seriously the freedom of teachers, researchers, scholars, students and other members of the HEI community to live and work in a safe environment in which their dignity is protected.

1.2. Protection against harassment is important not only because it threatens the freedom and conduciveness of the environment at institutions of higher learning, but at a more fundamental level, such conduct is unacceptable because it violates personal dignity and shall not be tolerated, under any circumstance, at HEIs in Pakistan

1.3. In accordance with the terms of this policy, harassment shall be prohibited at HEIs in Pakistan and shall constitute a punishable offence under the policy. The HEC affirms the right of every member of the HEI community to live, study and work in an environment that is free from harassment. The goal of this policy is to prevent harassment from taking place, and where necessary to act upon complaints of harassment promptly, fairly, judiciously and with due regard to the confidentiality of all parties concerned.

1.4. All administrators, deans, managers, faculty, department chairs, directors of schools or programs and others in supervisory or leadership positions have an obligation to be familiar with and to uphold this policy and its procedures along with informing members of their staff about its existence. HEIs are encouraged to formulate internal policies that further strengthen or expand the protections available under the HEC’s policy on harassment.

1.5. This policy has been made pursuant to the powers granted to the HEC under the Higher Education Commission Ordinance, 2002, and is binding on all higher education institutions in the country, whether operating in the public or private sectors. Violations or failure to comply with the HEC’s policies may lead to regulatory action being taken against non-compliant HEIs.

1.6. This policy is consistent with and has been made in light of the provisions of The Protection Against Harassment of Women at the Workplace Act, 2010 (as amended in 2022). It extends the protection against harassment to all members of the HEI community and provides the option to aggrieved persons to seek resources within the HEI or to seek redressal through the provisions of the Harassment Act 2010.

2. PROHIBITED CONDUCT

2.1. “Harassment” means any unwelcome advance, request for favors or other verbal or written communication or physical conduct of a nature, or demeaning attitudes, where:

- a) Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual participation in any activity at the HEI;
- b) Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as a basis for academic or employment decision affecting that individual; or
- c) Such conduct has the purpose or effect of interfering with an individual’s academic or work performance, or of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive educational or working environment.

2.2. Harassment may be overt or subtle and can range from visual signals or gestures to verbal abuse to physical contact along with hand or sign language to denote activity, persistent and unwelcome flirting (see Annex 1 for examples of various manifestations).

2.3. The following behaviors are specifically prohibited under this policy. The following are meant to provide specificity to the definition provided in clause 2.1. However, it is not an exhaustive list, and other behaviors that fall within the scope of the definition above shall also be prohibited.

- a) Especially Egregious Non-Consensual Acts: Acts that would be included in the category of attempted rape. While such situations will be covered under the laws of the country, and law enforcement institutions and the courts will investigate and adjudicate accordingly, the HEI administration has a special obligation to take preventative measures, offer immediate assistance and take interim measures when required.
- b) Non-Consensual Contact: Includes contact with another person without consent.
- c) Exploitation: Taking of actions that violate the sexual privacy of others or taking sexual advantage of another without their consent. For example, taking pictures, videotaping, viewing or distributing explicit images or sexual information of another person without their consent.
- d) Other Pervasive or Severe Behaviors: It is not necessary that there be actual contact for a behavior to be categorized as harassment. Other unwelcome behaviors are also prohibited if (i) they are based on an individual’s sex or gender (ii) are persistent or highly serious and (iii) create an atmosphere which is intimidating or hostile. These include but are not limited to lewd remarks or gestures, highly offensive jokes of a sexual nature, commenting inappropriately about another’s body, and stalking.
- e) Gender Discrimination: Adverse treatment of individuals based on their gender rather than on merit. This would include instances such as the singling out (for such adverse treatment as lower salary or grades, or more severe punishment) of person(s) on the basis of sex or gender.

2.4. All the actions categorized as harassment when done physically or verbally would also be considered as harassment when done electronically such as through the internet, e-mails, social media, texting, telephone, voicemail etc.

2.5. All actions of harassment or discrimination may be taken by a person of any gender against a person of the same or another gender and would need to be considered by the HEI if the act qualifies as prohibited conduct under the policy.

2.6. Harassment is especially offensive when perpetrated by people in authority, and when submission is made a condition toward any HEI activity or benefit (for example, when submission is made the basis of the evaluation of an individual).

2.7. Harassment will be considered especially egregious when the accused knew or reasonably should have known that the victim was in an impaired or incapacitated state. However, impairment of the accused, such as a result of the use of any illegal substances, shall not diminish their responsibility for harassment under this policy.

3. JURISDICTION

3.1. This policy applies to actions by students, faculty, staff, other members of the HEI community (such as interns, residents etc.), or third parties (such as service providers, visitors etc.), who may be male, female or transgender persons, when the misconduct occurs:

- a) on the HEI property (i.e. on campus) or in its immediate vicinity;
- b) off the HEI property, if (i) the conduct occurs in connection with an HEI recognized program or activity or (ii) the conduct may create an intimidating and offensive environment or pose a safety risk on campus; and
- c) using the university's computing or network resources accessed from an off-campus location, which shall be deemed to have occurred on campus.

5.3. In the event that a complainant is reluctant to contact any member of the Inquiry Committee, the complainant may contact a colleague, instructor, the employment supervisor, manager, department chair, dean or VC. It will be the responsibility of the individual contacted to report the case to the Inquiry Committee without identifying either the complainant or the alleged offender and to ask for advice on the procedure and policy from them to affect a solution, if a solution is necessary.

5.4. A complainant does not necessarily have to make a complaint of harassment through the informal channel. They can launch a formal complaint at any time. The complainant may make formal complaints through her in-charge, supervisor, CBA nominee or worker's representative or directly to any member of the Inquiry Committee. The Committee member approached is obligated to initiate the process of investigation. The supervisor shall facilitate the process and is obligated not to cover up or obstruct the inquiry (as mentioned in Clause 2-vii & viii of The Protection Against Harassment of Women at the Workplace Act, 2010 (as amended in 2022).

5.5. All members of the HEI community are encouraged to report any instances of harassment that they may have observed to Inquiry Committee. 5.7. For minor violations, complainants may opt to make an informal complaint to the Inquiry Committee. The primary objective of informal resolution mechanism is to take preventative action, so that minor violations are detected early and an appropriate warning is given to the accused to stop offending behavior before it reaches a higher degree of seriousness. If the incident reported through this mechanism constitutes prohibited conduct under Section 2 of this policy, the Inquiry Committee shall deal with the complaint accordingly.

6. INTERIM MEASURES AND SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS

6.1. As soon as a complaint or report is received by designated resources or any member of the HEI administration, depending on the nature and seriousness of the offence, the Inquiry Committee shall take appropriate steps to provide interim measures that may be requested by the affected persons or otherwise may be deemed appropriate. If the person affected is not satisfied with the measures taken, he or she may contact the Competent Authority for necessary action. Interim measures include but are not limited to:

There may be circumstances in which the complainants may wish to limit their participation in the proceedings. The complainant shall not be subjected to disciplinary proceedings, but the HEI may be obligated to proceed with the investigation.

8.7. Following the formal hearing, the members of the Inquiry Committee shall deliberate and determine the validity of the complaint based on the totality of the circumstances. The presence or absence of evidence cannot always be the sole criteria on which a judgment can be made. The credibility of statements and context must be kept in mind during the deliberations. The committee members will reach a decision unanimously or by a majority after the deliberations. Where the complaint is found to be valid, the Committee will recommend an appropriate penalty.

8.8. The Inquiry Committee shall complete the inquiry and recommend its final decision within a period of 30 days. 12. MALA FIDE ALLEGATION

12.1. False allegations of harassment made out of malice or intent to hurt the reputation of the persons against whom the complaint is filed are to be dealt with as serious offences. Making mala fide allegation of harassment knowing it to be false, whether in a formal or informal context, is a serious offence under this policy.

12.2. In the event that the Inquiry Committee determines that a false allegation is made in the complaint with mala fide intent, it may recommend appropriate action against the complainant by sending its findings to the VC (by recording reasons thereof and including any note of dissent) for endorsement and action. In cases in which the conduct falls within the scope of The Protection Against Harassment of Women at the Workplace Act, 2010 (as amended in 2022), the Inquiry Committee may recommend the handing over of such cases to the Ombudsperson for taking further action against the complainant who made the false allegation with mala fide intent.

13. PROTECTION AGAINST REPRISAL

13.1. HEIs shall not allow reprisals or threats of reprisal against any member of the HEI community who makes use of this policy (formally or informally). HEIs shall also prohibits such threats or actions against anyone who participates (e.g. testifies, assists, etc.) in the inquiry committee's or the Appellate Body's proceedings held under its jurisdiction.

13.2. Retaliation or any other action against a complainant of harassment is to be taken seriously under the provisions of this policy. All allegations of retaliation would be investigated formally by the inquiry committee under the purview of this policy, and if substantiated, will result in appropriate disciplinary action the penalties noted in Section 10 and this may be taken in subsumption within the original complaint.

14. SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS REGARDING RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN INDIVIDUALS

14.1. In contrast with harassment, personal relationships amongst consenting adults of the HEI community that do not breach the social and cultural norms of the society are, in general, a private matter.

14.2. Under the policy it is highly inappropriate for any member of the community to establish an intimate relationship with a student, subordinate or colleague on who's academic or work performance he or she will be required to make professional judgments. The policy requires that the individual may not involve themselves in such conduct as the professional responsibility for supervision or oversight would be affected in such cases. Relationships with a difference in power and authority can seriously affect the institutional work as well as the credibility of all involved. In particular, intimate or romantic relationships between faculty members and students (whether at the undergraduate or the graduate level) shall be prohibited.

15. EDUCATION FOR PREVENTION

15.1. To ensure the prevention of harassment on campus, HEIs should develop programs to educate its staff, faculty and students as well as provide written material for reference. Education is essential to sensitizing the university faculty, staff and students in order to eliminate harassment on campus. This shall be done in multiple ways, including those listed below.

15.2. The HEC's Harassment Policy, any of the university's internal policies as well as information regarding The Protection Against Harassment of Women at the Workplace Act, 2010 (as amended in 2022) shall be:

- a) be made available on the HEI website (preferably at a visible place such as the homepage or a separate tab);
- b) be a part of the information package that all new hires receive;
- c) be a part of orientation sessions of new students and included in any written material given to them;
- d) be included in the HEI's Prospectus (a summarized version); and
- e) displayed in prominent locations on campus

15.3. The names of the members of the Inquiry Committee shall be made visible/accessible to the HEI community through its website, posted on notice boards, etc.

15.4. The HEI shall ensure that its relevant members (e.g members of the Inquiry Committee, HR personnel, etc.) attend training to educate themselves on harassment and the relevant laws and policies. Once trained, designated HR personnel shall be made responsible for educating all personnel, staff, faculty, students that join the HEI. This will be an ongoing activity.

15.5. All departments at the HEI must disseminate and display information about training session(s) on harassment (these should be held bi-annually or as required in each HEI these programs, what constitutes harassment, how to respond to it and what to do when someone asks for advice about harassment).
